

ACROSTICALLY.

OUR OPENING RECEPTION, s.w. cor. 123d st. and 3d ave., takes place Thursday, Oct. 31, from 4 P. M. to 9 P. M.

PLENTIFUL CROWDS of Harlem folks will be there, eager to get one of the

ELEGANT SOUVENIRS that will be presented to each lady and gentleman present.

NO GOODS WILL BE SOLD on the opening day, Thursday, but you can

INVEST YOUR MONEY with us to good advantage next day. You will

NOT FOLGET YOUR OWN INTEREST, and miss getting a very unique and valuable present, if you stay away from this

Grand Opening.

SMITH, GRAY &amp; CO.,

Manufacturers, Wholesalers and Retailers of CLOTHING FOR ALL AGES,
Three Brooklyn
Stores,
Eastern District,
Greenwich.
Corner Broadway and Bedford ave.,
Corner Union st. and Clarkson ave.,
And at Greenough &
Manhattan ave.

RANDOLPH & SILVA, the well-known 125th St. Clothiers, will transfer their business to this store (Cor. 123d St. and 3d Ave.), and the same will be under their management.

IN HER NIGHT ROBE.

A Sleep-Walking Young Woman's Experience in a Bayonne Marsh.

Found, Chilled and Moaning, Sunk to Her Knees in Mud.

Wandered from Her Aunt's Home in a Somnambulistic Fit.

Pauline Schultz, a white-faced, dark-haired girl of twenty-four years, living with her mother at 9 Frankfort street, has just undergone a most romantic and startling experience, and nearly frightened a Jerseyman out of his wits.

A nervous citizen of Bayonne was frightened out of a year's growth in the darkness of the wee small hours yesterday morning.

He had been "spending the evening" with his best girl, and about towards 9 o'clock in the "evening" he set out for home across the salt meadows lying between Constable Hook and Contrivance.

He was startled right in the midst of the marsh by the sudden appearance, as it out of the ground, of a figure clad in the air robes of white which returned spirals are popularly supposed to affect.

The young lover didn't wait to be interviewed, but didn't stop running till he reached Police Headquarters at Bayonne, and then, while he clutched the railing before Sergt. Caranagh's desk, he gaped between his chattering teeth that he had been pursued by a ghost.

As he was looking into a little calumny by the sergeant he said that he knew it was a ghost because it was so frail.

Sergt. Caranagh takes a ghost story, and he called in two patrolmen and posted them off with orders to capture that ghost if it was a people thing.

The patrolmen aunted high and low in the marshy marsh; and their rubber boots full of water and their clothing drenched with mud. Their minds were occupied with the possibility of there being two policemen's windows in Bayonne when they arrived at a ditch.

And there in the ditch was the ghost. It was making a wild, weird, moaning noise, and almost paralyzed with fear, the linecoat advanced on it with drawn clubs.

But, lo! The ghost had shoulders and substance. They dragged it out of the mud into a little firmer ground they examined it.

It was a young woman, unconscious, and as cold and clammy as a corpse. She was clad only in a chemise and a nightgown.

The officers hurried her to the house of the nearest physician, Dr. F. P. Lane, and under the ministrations of the doctor she revived sufficiently to tell that she was Pauline Schultz, of 9 Frankfort street, New York, and had been visiting with her mother at the home of her aunt, Mrs. F. F. Lane, at Avenue A, Bayonne. She didn't know how she happened to be in the marshes at that unseasonable hour and clad so unseasonably.

She was returned to her aunt's house and about the time she was being interviewed by an EVENING WORLD reporter called at the humble home, but her sister, Mrs. F. F. Lane, said that, aside from a slight cold, she was none the worse for her experience.

"Pauline has always been very nervous since her childhood," said Mrs. F. F. Lane. "Of late she has been subject to fits of aberration from her nervousness, and at such times she does many unaccountable things. She was in bed at her aunt's at midnight, and must have had one of her fits of somnambulism during the night. She said she remembered nothing about leaving the house nor how she got more than a mile away in the marshes. The doctor said that she would have been chilled to death in another hour had she not been found."

MARIE'S SUDDEN FLIGHT.

MISS HALTON, OF THE CASINO, NOW ON HER WAY TO ENGLAND.

In the theatrical world the engrossing subject of gossip to-day is the elopement of Miss Marie Halton, the beautiful Casino soubrette.

Marie's musical voice will be heard no more in the role of Claudine, the vivandiere in "The Drum Major," as by this time she is well on her way to England, having dropped a bombshell of surprise among her friends by taking a sudden departure for the other side on the City of Paris, which sailed yesterday morning.

Miss Halton's friends declare that she has been called by Mr. Joseph Lewis, who is reported to be a diamond-broker of London on a visit to the city.

Mr. Lewis and Miss Halton were intimate friends during the former's stay in this city, and when he was about to sail Miss Halton and a party of friends, among whom was Sylvia Gertrude, went to the wharf to see him off.

When the bell rang for "all ashore" Miss Halton started her companions by remarking, "I guess I will go along, too," and before they could recover from their surprise they were standing on the dock watching Miss Halton wave her handkerchief to them from the receding vessel.

For trip, though hurried, was unremarkable, for all belongings had been removed from her flat at 229 West Forty-third street, and her fourteen-year-old brother, Harry, had been given $20 with which to go to Philadelphia and stay with relatives pending his sister's return.

LADIES' HOUSE WRAPPERS.

Attention is called to a recent importation of French Flannel Wrappers, at prices quite as low as those of domestic make. An early inspection is recommended, as these wrappers have only been received in limited quantity.

Also, another importation of our famous Corset, "The Diane," in six different styles, ranging in price from $1.50 to $5.50 per pair.

Our One-Dollar Corset has proved a favorite and is, in many instances, preferred to any other style.

These different grades of Corsets are manufactured solely for us.

JAMES MCCREERY & CO.,
Broadway and 11th St.

A Thief with a Warm Heart.

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Louis James, a colored man, was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

James was arrested yesterday on a charge of stealing wine from the house of the Haytian Legation, No. 1018 Vermont avenue. He gave evidence of a redeeming trait in the First Precinct Station last night when he was called to the stand.

Stern Brothers

will place on sale

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY,

November 1 and 2,

in their

MEN'S FURNISHING DEPARTMENT

135 doz.

FOUR-IN-HAND, TECKS AND PUFF SCARFS

In Very Choice Patterns and Colors, at 47 cts.

Regular Price, $1.00.

In Addition, a Recent Importation of

ENGLISH AND FRENCH DE JOINVILLE AND MUFFLERS.

also,

One Lot Natural Wood Canes, With Silvered Crook

Handles, at.....95 cts.

One Lot Men's Silk Umbrellas, Extra Quality,

Imported Natural Handles, at.....$2.50

One Lot Twilled Silk Umbrellas, With Silvered

Crook Handles, at.....$2.98

32 to 36 West 23d St.

J.H. LITTLE &amp; CO

No. 5 West 14th St.,

MAKERS OF SPECIALTY OF CARRYING A STOCK OF

Furniture and Carpets

THAT IS ADAPTED TO MEET THE REQUIREMENTS OF THOSE WHO DESIRE TO FURNISH THEIR HOMES IN A COMFORTABLE AND ELEGANT MANNER AT A SMALL EXPENSE.

Tasty Designs, Reliable Goods

and Moderate Prices.

FOR BEDROOMS.
Antique Chamber Suite, complete.....$15.00
Antique Chamber Suite, 7 pieces.....$12.50
Cherry Chamber Suite, 7 pieces.....$10.00
Black Walnut Chamber Suite, 7 pieces.....$8.00
Said Oak Chamber Suite, 7 pieces.....$7.00
Said Oak Chamber Suite, 7 pieces.....$6.00
Also many others ranging in price from $4.50 to $20.00 per suit.

FOR PARLORS.
Mahogany Parlor Suite, 5 pieces, hand.....$28.00
Domestic Tapestry Suite, with plush trimmings.....$25.00
Parlor Suite, 5 pieces, hand.....$22.00
Parlor Suite, 5 pieces, hand.....$20.00
Also many others ranging in price from $10.00 to $12.00 per suit.

FOR DINING-ROOMS.
Antique or Walnut Sideboards, from $15.00 to $25.00
The Italian or French style, from $12.50 to $20.00
Antique Dining Chairs, from 1.25 to 2.00
Antique Dining Chairs, from 1.25 to 2.00

CARPETS.
Mosaic and Velvets, per yard.....$1.50
Body and Tapestry Brussels, per yard.....$1.00
Ingalls, extra superior quality, per yard.....$1.00
Olefin, new pattern, per yard.....$1.00
FOLDING-BEDS, FROM $10.75 TO $20.00, ALL STYLES.

CREDIT EXTENDED

ON THE BEST AND MOST LIBERAL SYSTEM

EVER DEVISED.

EVERY ARTICLE IS QUOTED AT THE VERY

LOWEST CASH PRICE, AND IF SIX, EIGHT OR

TWELVE MONTHS' TIME IS DESIRED 6 PER CENT, IN ADDITION TO THE AMOUNT PURCHASED.

ACCOUNTS MADE PAYABLE WEEKLY OR

MONTHLY.

J. H. LITTLE &amp; CO.,

No. 5 West 14th St.

Little Mickey Was Two Mischievous.

When fourteen-year-old Annie Hartman started with a big basket Tuesday afternoon to purchase

groceries for her mother's boarding-house at No. 310

West street, Mickey, a mischievous three-year-old child, went along. While passing a crockery store in Varick street Mickey picked up a sugar bowl and was about to put it in the basket when Annie detected him, snatched the bowl and put it back in its place.

Then Mickey seized two pairs of shoes from a neighbor standing there and put them in the basket. The storekeeper ran out and Annie handed him back the sugar bowl. Annie and her mischievous companion continued their journey until they were stopped by a stranger woman who asked the girl to hold a parcel for her for a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,

about the girl and her basket, came up at the juncture

and arrested her. She told him the foregoing

story. The case was taken to the police court, where

Annie was released on $500 bail. At Jefferson Market

yesterday the girl said nothing, but

chewed gum and ate a parcel for her for

a few moments. The woman did not return and

Annie explored the parcel, finding a bag of sugar, a

package of berries, canned fruit, a woolen cap and

other small articles. Policeman Schieler, who had been notified by Mrs. Clark, of the crockery store,